

Commenters will not be required to serve copies of filed documents on all other parties. However, commenters will not receive copies of all documents filed by other parties or issued by the Commission and will not have the right to seek rehearing or appeal the Commission's final order to a federal court.

The Commission will consider all comments and concerns equally, whether filed by commenters or those requesting intervenors status.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission by Sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act and the Commission's Rules of Practice and procedure, a hearing will be held without further notice before the Commission or its designee on this application if no motion to intervene is filed within the time required herein, if the Commission on its own review of the matter finds that a grant of the certificate is required by the public convenience and necessity. If a motion for leave to intervene is timely filed, or if the Commission on its own motion believes that a formal hearing is required, further notice of such hearing will be duly given.

Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for ANR to appear or be represented at the hearing.

MIGC, Inc., Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

September 29, 1997.

Take notice that on September 24, 1997, MIGC, Inc. (MIGC) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, First Revised Volume No. 1, First Revised Sheet No. 37, with an effective date of November 1, 1997.

MIGC states that the filing is being filed pursuant to Subpart C of Part 154 of the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission's Regulations Under the Natural Gas Act and Order No. 636-C issued February 27, 1997 at Docket Nos. RM91-11-006 and RM87-34-072 (Order No. 636-C)

MIGC states that this tariff sheet revises the Right-of-First Refusal provision to provide for a five year maximum term for bid evaluations.

Any person desiring to be heard or to protest said filing should file a motion to intervene or protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Sections 385.214 and 385.211 of the Commission's Rules and Regulations. All such motions or protests must be filed in accordance with Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Any person wishing to become a party must file a motion to intervene. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and are available for public inspection in the Public Reference Room.

Mississippi River Transmission Corporation; Notice of Proposed Changes in FERC Gas Tariff

September 29, 1997.

Take notice that on September 24, 1997, Mississippi River Transmission Corporation (MRT) tendered for filing as part of its FERC Gas Tariff, Third Revised Volume No. 1, Substitute Third Revised Sheet No. 9, with a proposed effective date of October 12, 1997.

MRT states that the purpose of this filing is to adjust and reduce the Account No. 191 amounts MRT requested authority to direct bill its former Rate Schedule CD-1 and SGS-1 customers as a result of additional prior period adjustments to MRT's Account No. 191 balance to remove that percentage of costs attributable to MRT's non-jurisdictional direct industrial sales during the relevant period.

MRT states that copies of its filing have been mailed to all of its customers, including all former Rate Schedule CD-1 and STS-1 customers, and the State Commissions of Arkansas, Illinois, and Missouri.

Any person desiring to protest said filing should file a protest with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission, 888 First Street, N.E., Washington, D.C. 20426, in accordance with Section 385.211 of the Commission's Rules of Practice and Procedure. All such protests should be filed as provided in Section 154.210 of the Commission's Regulations. Protests will be considered by the Commission in determining the appropriate action to be taken, but will not serve to make protestants parties to the proceeding. Copies of this filing are on file with the Commission and available for public inspection.
